Problem Scenario

You are driving in a car at a constant speed.

On your left is a valley and on your right is a fire engine traveling at the same speed as you.

In front of you is a galloping pig which is the same size as your car and you cannot overtake it.

Behind you is a helicopter flying at ground level.

Both the giant pig and the helicopter are also traveling at the same speed as you.

What must you do to safely get out of this highly dangerous situation?

Solution

Never ride the children's merry go round when you are drunk. Get off. You will be safe.

many years of experts.'

How many 'fs' do you see?

'Strength lies in differences, not similarities'.

(Stephen Covey)

A stack of colorful sticky notes is shown on a light brown, textured surface. The top note is green and has the words "MAKE THINGS HAPPEN!" written in bold, black, hand-drawn capital letters. Below it, a yellow sticky note is visible, and further down, a pink one. The notes are slightly overlapping and have a slightly worn, torn edge appearance.

A photograph of a basket filled with white eggs. The basket is lined with aluminum foil and sits on a metal stand. A white sign with black handwritten text is attached to the front of the basket. The sign reads "BONELESS CHICKEN 35¢". The background is dark and out of focus, suggesting an indoor setting like a market or grocery store.

Realities for many Australian regional communities-

- Stagnant population growth
 - Ageing population
 - Loss of youth
- Declining levels of social capital
- Decline in importance of traditional industries
 - Impact of mining
- Growing youthful indigenous population
 - Regionalization of services
 - Impact of climate change/water shortage

Lesson No 2.-

Whatever the issue, community is the answer

Rule No 1: Citizens have the answers

Rule No 2: When in doubt, refer to Rule
No1

Lesson No 3.-

Importance of local leadership

“Given the task of rejuvenating a region and the choice of $50 million, or $2 million and 20 committed local leaders, we would choose the smaller amount of money and the committed leaders.”

(McKinsey and Company (1994) Lead Local Compete Global: Unlocking the Growth of Australia's Regions)

'Leadership is the thing that wins battles. I have it, but I'll be damned if I can define it'.

(General George Patton)

1. Making Things Happen

'Leadership is not necessarily a title or a powerful position; it is a process, it is relational, it is making something happen, it is leaving a mark.'

(Lorraine Matusak)

FESTIVAL FROLICS

While most of WA will be unwrapping Easter eggs on Sunday, hundreds of people in the Shire of Koolin will be preparing to burn a giant wooden effigy.

For some, this pagan ritual will exorcise personal demons, for others it is a way to honour Gaia, the mother of all things.

And then there are the people who just like to watch stuff burn.

The "temple" burning will be the culmination of the fourth annual Blazing Swan festival, a week-long event starting on Wednesday that is both an exercise in temporary community and unfettered hedonism.

It is based on America's Burning Man festival, a famously weird annual gathering of 50,000 or so like-minded, and often scantily-clad, individuals in the Nevada desert.

The 11 principles of Blazing Swan encourage "radical self-expression", "civic responsibility", "gifting" and "decommodification", among other things, and the result is a Mad Max-esque society, only with less fights to the death.

Blazing Swan revellers.

2. Creating vision

'If any one idea about leadership has inspired organisations and communities for thousands of years, it is the capacity to hold a shared picture of the future we seek to create' -Peter Senge

*'True leadership involves a vision and inspiring those around you and working with you to make that vision
a reality'*

-David Karpin
