

ROI Open License

The Information is provided to you, the user, subject to the terms and conditions contained in this license issued by the Rural Ontario Institute (ROI) (the “License”). Your access to and use of any Information indicates your understanding and acceptance of this License. If you do not agree with this License, you may not use the Information. You acknowledge that this License, whereby ROI allows you access and use of the Information in exchange for your adherence to the terms and conditions of this License, constitutes a legally binding agreement enforceable in accordance with its terms.

In this License, “Information” means the data, information, statistics, analyses, outputs, maps, charts, text, reports, and other material provided to you by ROI through the Community Wellbeing Dashboard, including the data ROI has obtained from various organizations for the express purpose of creating the Community Wellbeing Dashboard to help communities with planning, decision making, research, education, or other related purposes. You acknowledge that these providers of data do not endorse ROI or ROI’s or your use of the Information. The views expressed are the views of ROI and do not necessarily reflect the views of these organizations.

Subject to restrictions contained in this License, ROI grants you a worldwide, royalty-free, non-exclusive, non-sublicensable, revocable licence to access, use, reproduce, publish, and freely distribute the Information solely for the non-commercial purposes of:

- (a) Business analysis, planning, reporting, and decision making; or
- (b) Research, advocacy, education, or personal purposes.

You shall not, under any circumstances:

- a) Use the Information for any commercial purpose, including, but not limited to, selling, reselling, distributing for a fee, or otherwise profiting from the Information;
- b) Reproduce, modify, or distribute the Information to third parties in a manner that enables any commercial use as described above;
- c) Use the Information in any manner that infringes upon the intellectual property rights of ROI, its licensors, or any third party;
- d) Use the Information to create derivative works that will be sold, licensed, or distributed commercially;
- e) Use the Information for the purpose of attempting to identify an individual person, business or organization;
- f) Suggest that ROI or any of the other sources of the Information endorses your use of the Information; or
- g) In accessing the Information, transmit any material that contains software viruses, or any other computer code, files or programs designed to interrupt, destroy or limit the functionality of any computer software or hardware or telecommunications equipment, whether belonging to ROI or to a third-party.

You shall acknowledge ROI as the source of the Information on any materials produced from the use of the Information as follows:

Source: Community Wellbeing Dashboard. Rural Ontario Institute. Published September 2024. Accessed on [date].

Other than your obligation to attribute and acknowledge ROI as the purveyor of the Information, you shall not use ROI's name, logos, trademarks, or other proprietary materials without the express written consent of ROI.

The Information is provided "as is" and "as available" without any representations or warranties of any kind, whether express, implied, statutory, or otherwise, including, but not limited to, warranties of accuracy, completeness, non-infringement, absence of latent or other defects, the presence or absence of errors, whether or not known or discoverable, merchantability, or fitness for a particular purpose. In no event shall ROI be liable to you for any costs, expenses, or damages, including direct, special, indirect, incidental, consequential, punitive, moral or exemplary damages, arising out of or in connection with your access to or use of the Information, whether in an action based on contract, tort, or any other legal theory, even if ROI has been advised of the possibility of such damages. To the extent that any of the foregoing is found to be unenforceable, ROI's maximum aggregate liability to you, whether in an action based on contract, tort, or any other legal theory, shall be twenty-five Dollars ($25). You agree to indemnify and hold ROI harmless from any liability made by any third party due to or arising out of your breach of this License.

Any material downloaded or otherwise obtained through the access or use of the Information is accessed and used at your own discretion and risk, and you will be solely responsible for and hereby waive any and all claims and causes of action with respect to any damage to your device, computer system, or other electronic system, including loss of internet access, or loss or corruption of data that results from the use of or access to the Information.

This Licence is effective as of the date and time you access the Information and shall terminate automatically if you breach any of the terms of this Licence. ROI reserves the right to modify the terms of this License without notice to you. ROI may remove, edit, modify, or otherwise change the presentation of the Information at any time in its sole discretion without notice to you. This licence is governed by the laws of the province of Ontario and the applicable federal laws of Canada.
